Every Other Day
by Jennifer Lynn Barnes

“A contemporary Buffy”—Publishers Weekly

“Readers will devour this fantastic series starter … Barnes brings her characters to life in stunning detail. This is not your usual paranormal fare.”
—RT Book Reviews

The Butterfly Clues
by Kate Ellison

“A pleasing mix of realism, tension, intrigue and romance.”—Kirkus Reviews

“In a strong, twisty thriller of a debut, Ellison builds tension effectively, creating credible portraits of both the decaying, violent streets of Neverland and the compulsions that make Lo such a complex and memorable heroine.”—Publishers Weekly

---

BZRK
by New York Times best-selling author
Michael Grant

In this war there are only two outcomes:
Victory or Madness

The Savage Grace
by Bree Despain

— Series available in e-book

---

Kill Me Softly
by Sarah Cross

What if you found out you were born with Sleeping Beauty’s curse—destined to fall asleep on your 16th birthday?

Quarantine
by Lex Thomas

When high school cliques become gangs for survival, what are you willing to do to survive?
What if the new girl started stealing your friends, and then your clothes, and then your life?

Timepiece by Myra McEntire

Praise for Timepiece:
“A perfectly well-rounded book with paranormal action and love triangle, this will keep you guessing until the surprising end. If you’re a paranormal lover, you do not want to miss this one!” —Romantic Times, 4 ½ stars

“McEntire’s debut novel is really all about romance.” —Booklist

Dark Water A Siren Novel by Tricia Rayburn

Praise for Siren:
“Will leave readers wanting more.” —Booklist

Praise for Undercurrent:
“This is a thoroughly enjoyable sequel that will appeal to mythology lovers. The action and romance are palpable and teens will find themselves sucked in to the very end.” —VOYA
